

14 December 1951

[] proposals for 1952 (per 925 CAGWU)

SECRET

BGFriend Personnel

[] and possibly [] to go to the Army Intelligence school at Oberammergau during the winter months. [] and [] to be assigned to [] training staff during the winter season.

Edmund Edmunds to go to Karlsruhe for a month for a commo instructor's indoctrination course. Dec. 1951-Jan. 1952.

W/T Training

6 Albanians to be recruited from the Guard Company using Commo's own technique, and enter training under [] at Wangness during January 1952.

4 W/T's now at Wangness to go to Athens and continue advanced training along with Hajrullah Terpeza, the exfiltrated Chestnut W/T.

Operational Training

On or about 1 April 1952 [] will send the first of the 1952 teams to enter training at Wangness or a safe house. Each team to consist of 4 to 6 men and be given training for short, round-trip missions. This training to emphasize survival and safe movement, reception committee organization, and setting up of communications networks. It is proposed that they will attempt to establish W/T's permanently in Albania.

Guard Company

Training Proposals

- A. training program for a cadre of Albanian officers could be done at Grafenwol if additional training personnel can be secured
- B. one or two platoons a month to be withdrawn from the Guard Company and sent to Grafenwol for training, to be a continuously rotating operation.

Second Guard Company

Held up pending State Department determination on Fiend/Valuable operations proposal for 1952-53.

Yarborough Team

[] to receive and forward members to [] in the spring. [] will set up the arrangements and furnish a W/T from Athens.

✓ [] Operational Plan for 1952 will be forthcoming after State Department has rendered its decision.

DECLASSIFIED AND RELEASED BY CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
SOURCE METHODS EXEMPTION 3B2B
NAZI WAR CRIMES DISCLOSURE ACT
DATE 2007

SECRET